1. What Dragon Ball Series Are About

What Dragon Ball Is

Dragon Ball is a series of comics and anime which is rooted on A Journey to the West.

It describes a journey and battles for wonderful balls called Dragon Ball which realises any hope within the ability of the Creator if its 7 balls are collected and a specific spell is cast.

Its economic effect was so huge that the author, Akira Toriyama, wished to cease after the Frieza episodes, but the publisher did not allow it.

As a result, Dragon Ball became a long-running comic series, which led to loads of funny contradictions of settings in characters and situations.

The World of View

- Currency: Z
- Language: Japanese as a cosmopolitan language
- Barometer of Strength
 - Battle Power: Scored by a device called Scouter
 - Goku: 10(Beginning) → 180(The 22nd World Martial Arts Tournament) → 260(vs. Great Satan Piccolo) → 334 - 416 - 924(vs. Radditz) → 8000 - 32000(vs. Nappa & Vegeta) → 5000 - 90000 - 180000(vs. Ginyu Special Force) → 300万 - 1億5000万(vs. Frieza)
 - Kili: Scored by a device Dark Wizard Babidi has. Character who has 200 - 300 kilis is said to be able to destroy a couple of planets.
 - Goku: 3000 Kilis(Full Power Form of Super Saiyan 1)
 - Yakon: 800 Kilis

Species

- Earthians

- Humanoid Earthians: Kurillin, Yamcha, Master Roshi, Tenshinhan (Strictly not an Earthian but an offspring of Three-Eyed Family) etc.
- Animal Earthians: Hermit Karin, Male Wolf, Giran etc.
- Humanoid Cyborg: No.8, No.17, No.18, No.20(Dr. Gero), Cell
 - No.13 - 15, No.16 and No.19 were manufactured from the scratch, so they are not counted as Earthian.

- Aliens

- Humanoid Aliens: Saiyans(Goku, Vegeta, Nappa, Raditz etc.), Recoome
- Non-Humanoid Aliens: Namekians(Piccolo etc.), Cui, Guludo, Dodoria etc.
- Transformable Aliens: Frieza, Cooler, Zarbon

- Demons

- Said to be born in the Makyo Star, but there are some exceptions like Piccolo who is born and raised.
- Their body is mature by born or incredibly quickly grow up.
- Those killed by Demons never become Buddha and keep wandering this world with pains Humanoid species can bear children(e.g., Gohan, Goten, Trunks etc.). Humanoid Cyborg No.17 and No.18 were originally human, so they can too.

Forms of Saiyan

- Normal Form: Z fighters can control battle power from 0 to the max power.
- Super Saiyan 1:
 - The 1st Phase: Soon after awaken and excited. 50 times + stronger than the normal form.
 - The 2nd Phase: More powerful and speedier than The 1st Phase. More muscular and the aura intensely flashes like fire of a burner.
 - The 3rd Phase: Too muscular to move speedily at all.
 - Full Power: Used to The 1st Phase and stay calm. Can fully release the whole potential power with the best physical balance and the least physical damage.
- Super Saiyan 2: 100 times + stronger than the normal form. More finely stand-up hair is distinctive. The aura is surrounded by sparks.
- Super Saiyan 3: 400 times + stronger than the normal form. Longer hair and lost eyebrows are typical. The aura is surrounded by sparks.
- Legendary Super Saiyan: Only Broly can transform. Purely thirsty for bloods and wars.
- Giant Ape: 10 times + stronger than the normal form. Royal Family members and elite fighters can keep their reasons.

Notes

[C] Commonly Described Both in Comics and Anime

[A] Described only in Anime

[C] No.1: Transport of Mercenary Tao

This character prefers to jump on a stone pillar to arrive at his destination, which is quite acrobatic. Theoretically, he could fly to the destination without the pillar because he can catch up with the so fast-moving object that reaches to it.

[C] No.1: Transport of Mercenary Tao

The pillar is not needed, is it?

[C] No.1: Transport of Mercenary Tao

However...

The weight of a human is not heavy enough to avoid air resistance and gravity, which is highly to lead to loss of the top speed on the way.

Therefore, such a heavy object as the pillar seems to work.

[C] No.2: Piccolo's Reaction to Gohan's Transformation to Giant Ape

After the battle against Radditz, Piccolo imposed a mission to survive in a wildland to prepare for harder battle against Nappa and Vegeta. One night, Gohan accidentally stares at the full moon and transformed to a giant ape and Piccolo was surprised at it. However, Gohan's battle power was only 1 in his normal form without excitement of his emotion, so his battle power must have been only 10 even after the transformation.

[C] No.2: Piccolo's Reaction to Gohan's Transformation to Giant Ape

Piccolo is too weak, isn't he?

[C] No.2: Piccolo's Reaction to Gohan's Transformation to Giant Ape

However...

This hypophysis is not official, but if the battle power of the giant ape form was 10 times stronger than the max power of the normal form, it would have been as high as 13070 because Gohan's max battle power was 1307 in the fight against Radditz.

Piccolo's battle power ranged from 408 to 1330 up to 1480 at the time, so Gohan could have been about 10 times stronger than Piccolo.

Piccolo was rather weak than lucky because he did not get injured at all.

[A] No.3: Survival of Vegeta in Space

According to Frieza, Saiyan cannot survive in the cosmic space and the official setting also mentions it.

However, Vegeta destroyed a ruined star on the way to the Earth from the cosmic space and fought against the remains of Frieza Force in the outer space.

[A] No.3: Survival of Vegeta in Space

Does Frieza and the official setting are fake?

[C] No.4: Transformation to Cyborg of Dr. Gero

Dr. Gero manufactured Cyborg No.19 and ordered it to transform himself to a humanoid cyborg No.20 during the 3 years after the attempt of invasion by mechanical Frieza.

However, Dr. Gero chose the old-fashioned energy Absorbing style of which battle power is much inferior to the perpetual energy style.

After all, he was terminated by No.17 who had the perpetual power reactor.

[C] No.4: Transformation to Cyborg of Dr. Gero

It was wiser of Dr. Gero to have chosen the perpetual energy style, wasn't it?

[C] No.4: Transformation to Cyborg of Dr. Gero

However...

Dr. Gero was super genuine who handled the latest mechatronics to biotechnology, but the only thing he was bad at was control of personality.

Actually, both of No.17 and 18 turned a deaf ear to his order at all, so he invented No.19 with the old-fashioned energy-absorbing style at the expense of greater battle power.

Also, No.19 was in charge of transformation of Dr. Gero to No.20, so No.19 could have been out of control and he failed to change to a cyborg if he had implemented the perpetual power reactor to No.19.

Even if Dr. Gero adopted the power reactor to himself, he would have failed to control his own personality and lost his own mind.

Considering it, both of No.19 and 20(Dr. Gero) had no choice but to be manufactured with the old-fashioned style.

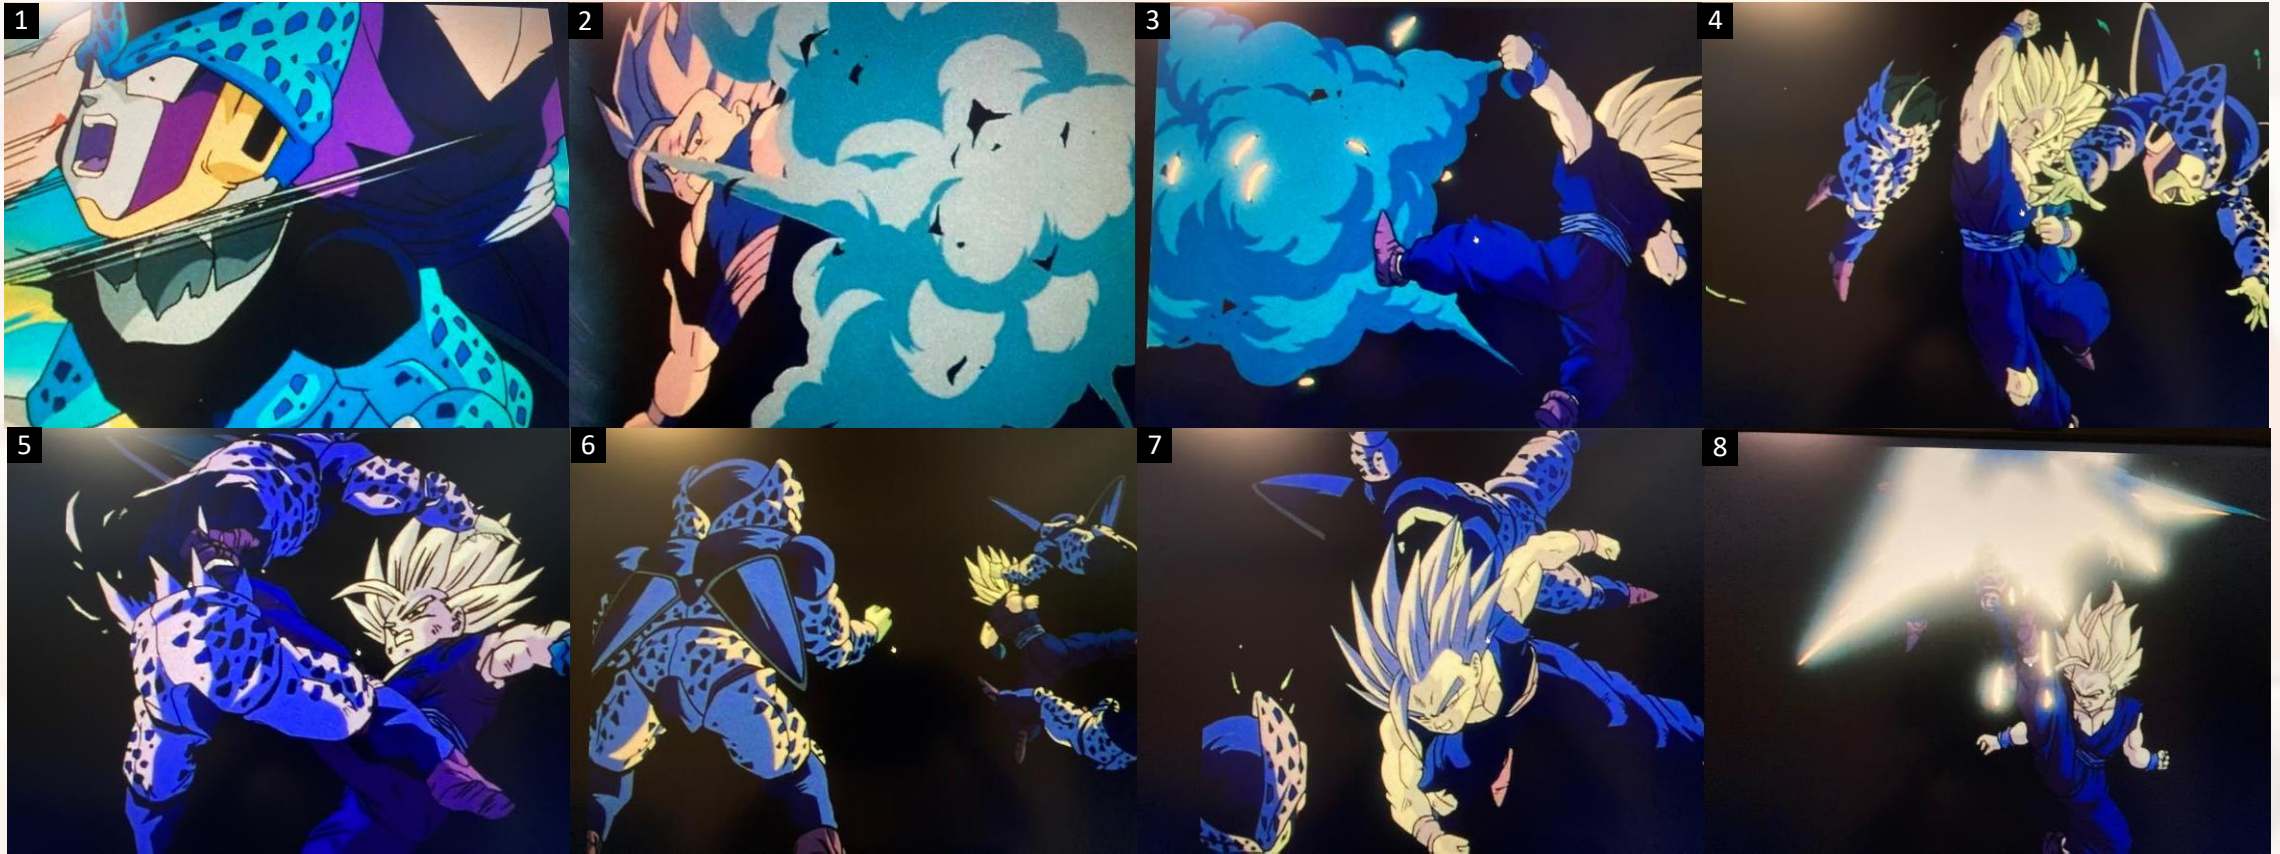

[A] No.5: The Number of Cell Jr.

In a scene of Cell Game, Cell born 7 children called Cell Jrs. for so that he tried to educe Gohan's incredible potential power by let his kids injure as many other Z fighters.

Cell born 7 children, but Gohan actually terminated as many as 8 Cell Jrs.

[A] No.5: The Number of Cell Jr.

[A] No.5: The Number of Cell Jr.

Where did the other show up?

[A] No.6: An English Class in Orange Star High School

7 years after Cell Game, Gohan started his high school life at Orange Star High School, where he took an English class.

However, all character can make themselves understood in Japanese as a cosmopolitan language regardless of differences in species in the world of Dragon Ball.

[A] No.6: An English Class in Orange Star High School

Learning English makes no sense, doesn't it?

[C] No.7: Aging of Gohan

Gohan was 11 years old when Cell Game was held.

When he fought against Majin Buu in 7 years, he had turned 16 years old.

' $11 + 7 = 18$ ', so he had to be 18.

11 years old

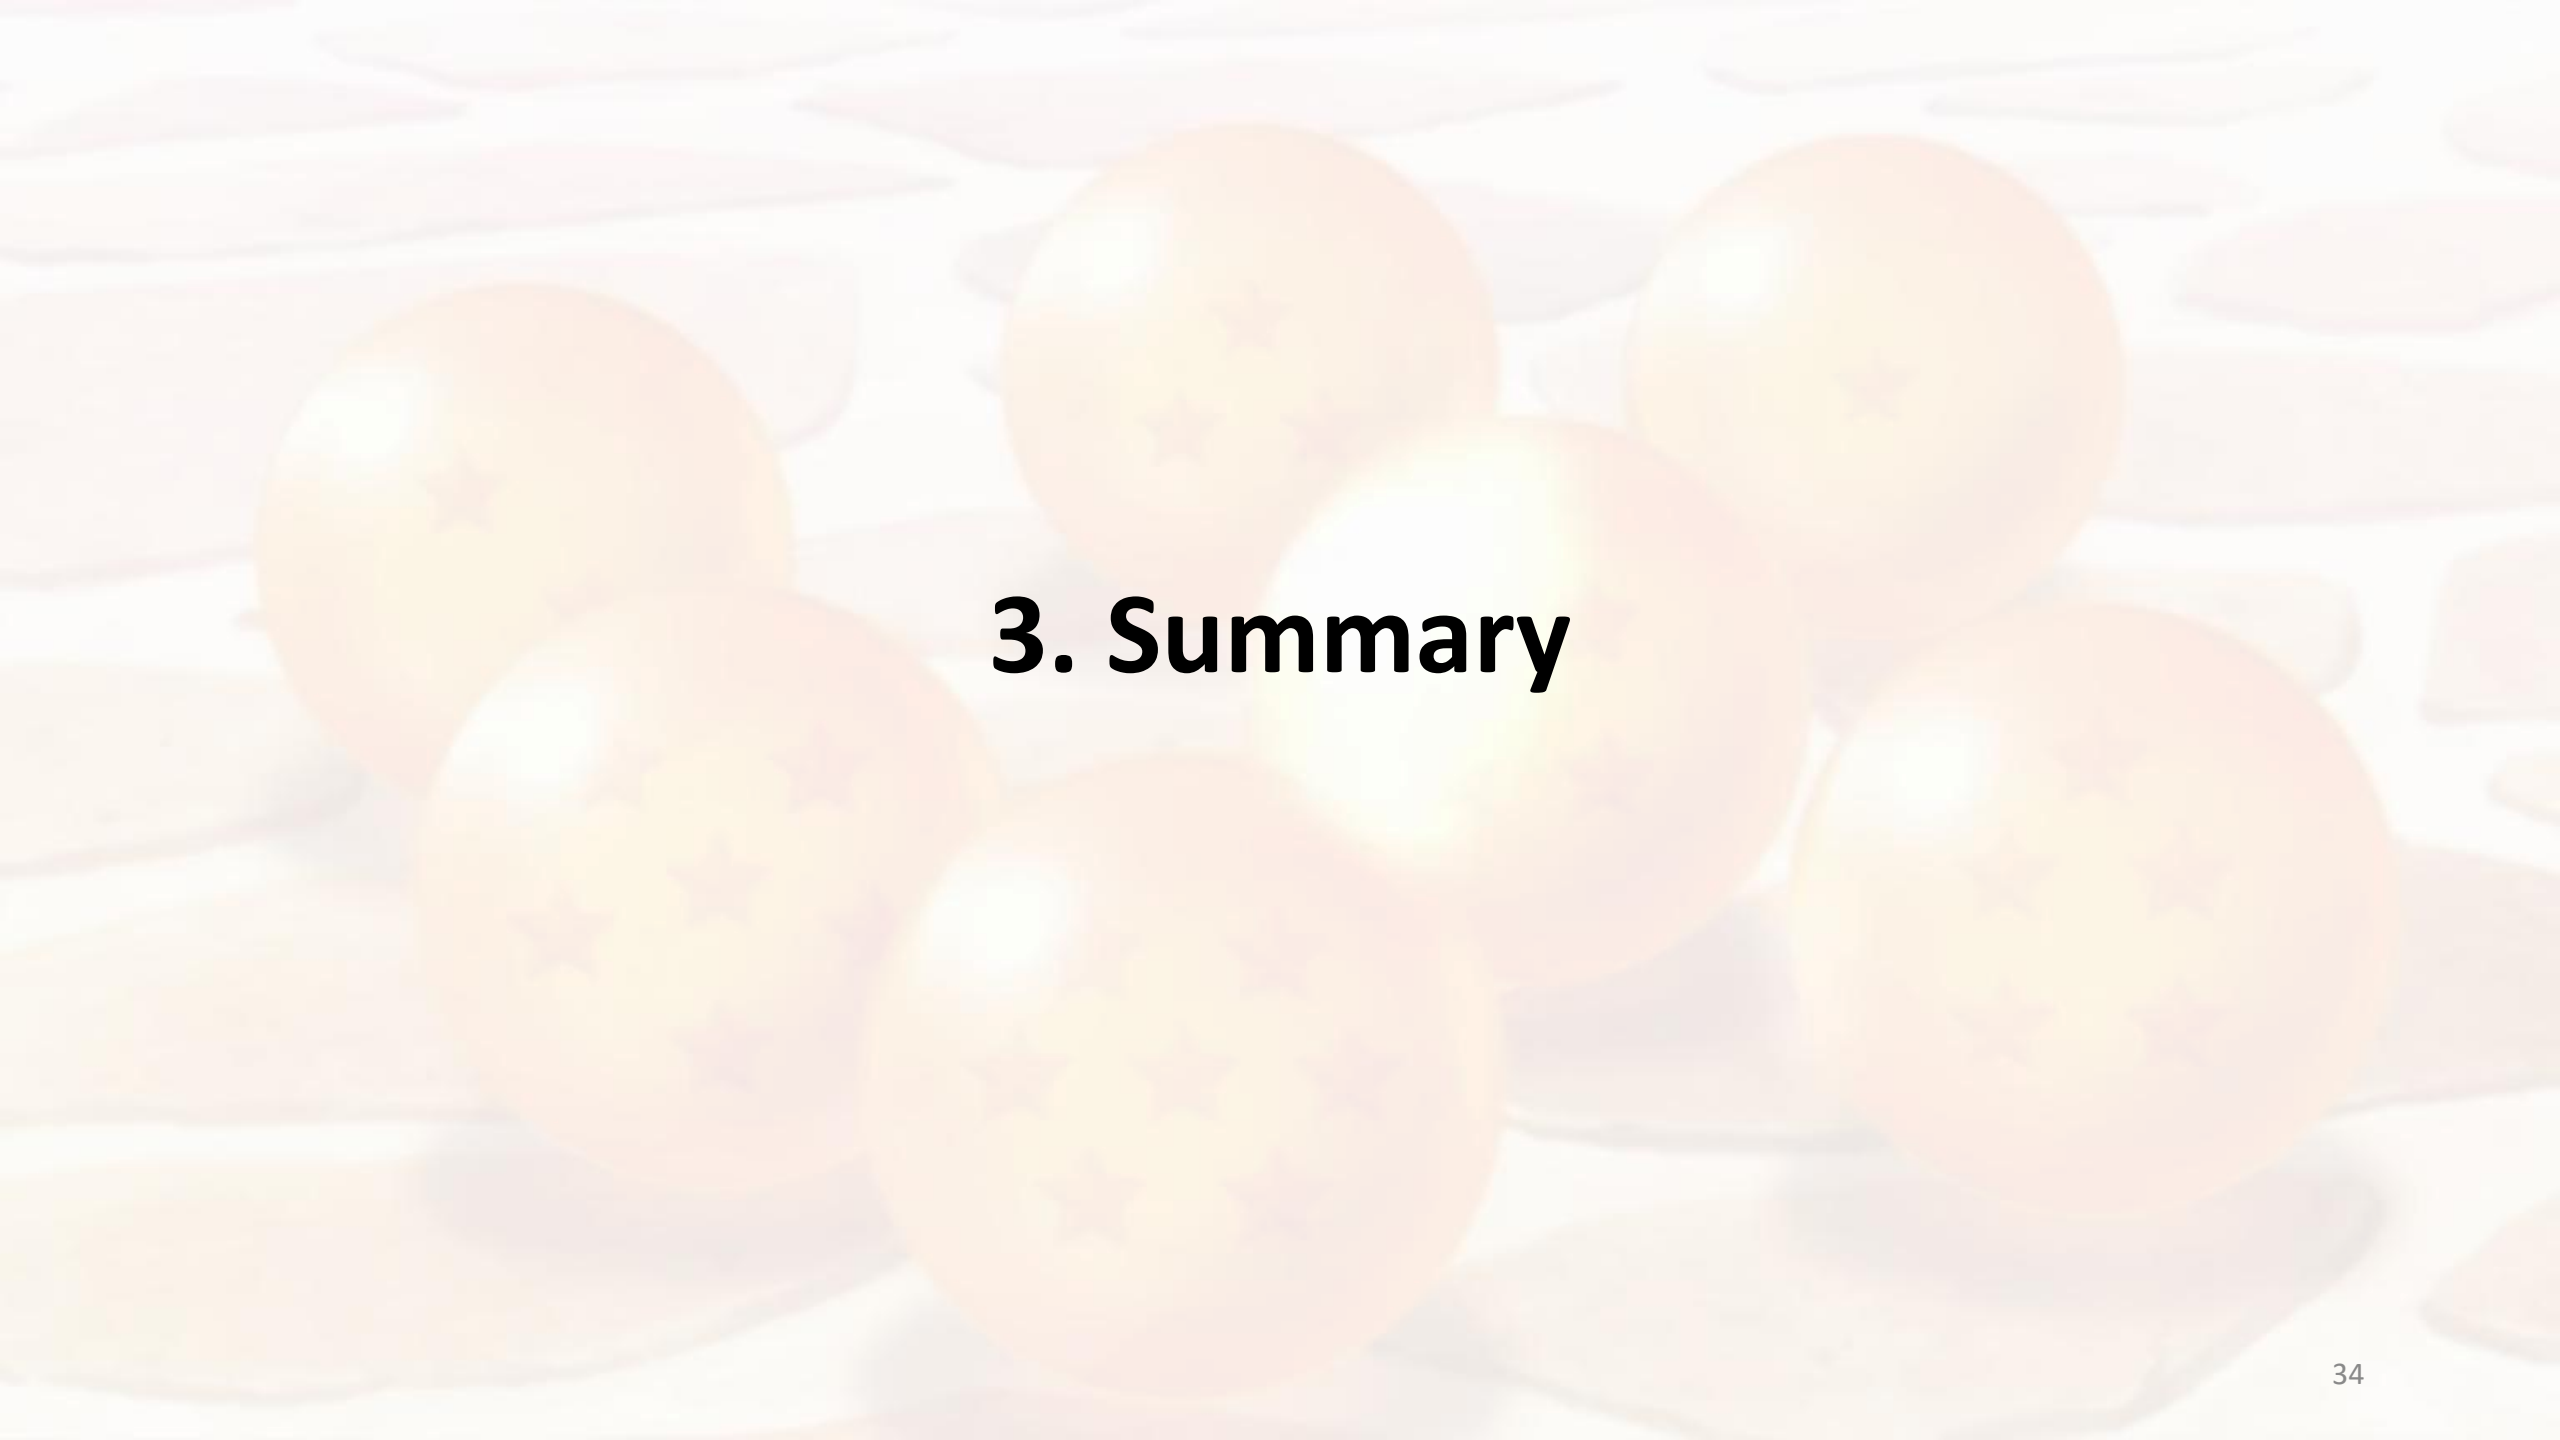

In 7 years

16 years old

[C] No.7: Aging of Gohan

3. Summary

3. Summary

Poor communication between the author and staff in the publication company and variable saying of the author himself brought loads of contradictions both in comics and anime.

It is more interesting than negative because there is space where readers can find hidden fun and pleasure.

Also, Dragon Ball is a purely sophisticated work that vividly describes exciting battles and grown-ups can enjoy reading it.

All episodes in comics, anime version of Dragon Ball and Dragon Ball Z are fun!

(Some people are fans of Majin Buu episodes and other not, but I personally am.)

3. Summary

I have said a lot, but in short...

Dragon Ball is the Best!
